

25 Isis Street, Buxton

Buxton For Boaties

Located in the quiet river side township of Buxton and with direct access to the Isis River and a short boat trip to the mouth of the Burrum River, the location is a boaties bonanza. This single bedroom home is currently rented for an immediate return on your investment or choose to make it your own property.

Raised off the ground and built with light materials, the home has scope for a range of purposes and having the large shed with garage space, it would be ideal as a workshop with plenty of storage room as well.

Approximately only a 30min drive to Childers for shopping, schools, medical and most other necessities or a bit further for Maryborough or Bundaberg.

A local store with Post Office facilities, boat ramps, bbq & picnic areas by the water offer plenty for the local residents to do.
